- Generate cases via our website
- Cases are triaged, if suitable for the clinic allocated to a firm of students
- Interviewed via Adobe connect- evenings/weekends
- Cases are managed through Clio case management system
- Advice only- 21 days from the interview

BPP Enterprise Clinic

- Opened in March 2017 - Manchester and London
- Aimed at start-ups and small enterprises
- Initial-advice only
- Fact-finding meeting followed by emailed advice within 14 days
- Partnerships with The Entrepreneurial Refugee Network
- Meetings in person and via Skype – approximately 25% of appointments conducted via Skype
- Paperless clinic – Intralinks (Document Management System), Trello & Slack.

Why have a virtual law clinic?

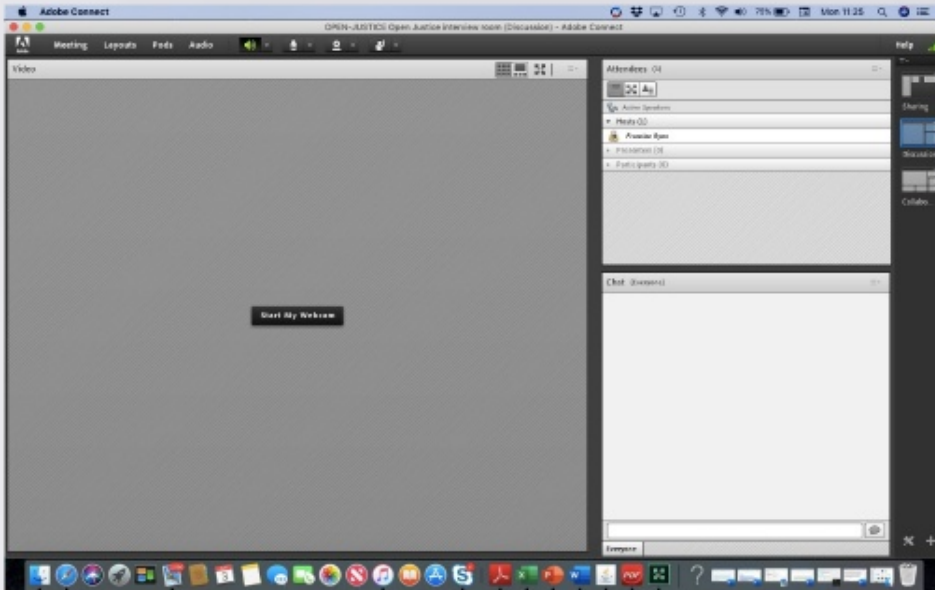

- Anyone with an internet connection can access the clinic
- Accept cases regardless of geographical distance.
- Open all year around
- Offer interviews around client's availability

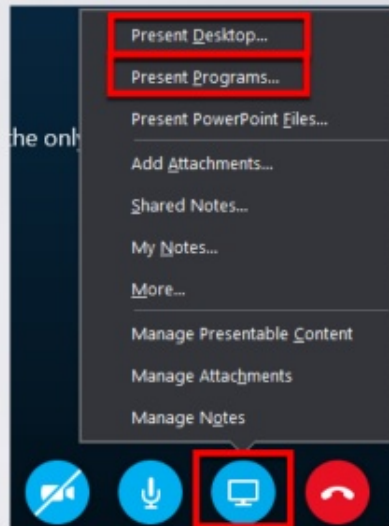

- Clients in or around Manchester and London
- Skype appointments where client can't attend in person
- Open September – July
- Appointments offered at either 5 or 6pm.

Tips for using video conferencing in clinic

Technology

Plan for the unexpected!

- Internet speed check
- Wired connection better than wifi
- Spare laptop / headphones

Clients

Do they know what to expect?

- Skype test day before?
- Ask them to be somewhere quiet
- Troubleshooting guide

Students

Take the lead

- Work harder to form a rapport
- Slow down!
- Test call before appointment

Hi @angela_cahill I've got an update regarding S ; she has confirmed her availability for 6pm on the 30th & has sent in her documents. Pending her consent form, which i'll email her about in the morning, she's good to go.

Regarding June's clients; I have confirmed with LTS that G K will be available to assist S on the 13th with a translator via Skype. Should I still send Mr. M an in-person Appointment Letter but mention the facility of a Kurdish translator on Skype? Am I correct in thinking this would be still preferable for our purposes to a Skype appointment?

Thanks @Maxie for offering to help set up Junes' appointments. If I give the 13th to S and the 27th to D , would you be ok arranging D for the 20th?

angela_cahill

9:13 AM

Great, thanks Camran - yes, let's get the client into the office and have G join via Skype.

Maxie

Sure @angela_cahill I'll handle the 20th

@Camran Goorani-Nejad - re S documents, can you save them to Intralinks with names describing what they are and ask S to bring the originals with her?

angela_cahill

@Camran Goorani-Nejad - please could you ask the current advisors for June whether they would like to swap out their place for one of the new advisors (assuming the new advisors have indicated availability for those dates)? Ideally let's get this sorted over the next week so we can get calendar appointments in their diaries. Thanks

Hi @angela_cahill I have renamed S. documents, D will confirm this eve ls she can attend the 27th June. I have also arranged for one of our old Student Advisors to give way for J . M & S (both new) have agreed to take the 30th May. This leaves only G without an appointment. I have emailed A to ask if she wouldn't mind letting G take her slot (edited)

Students

Practice makes perfect!

- Two manuals plus a recorded Adobe connect session on how to use Clio.
- Students undertake a simulated case before moving to the live clinic.
- Mock interview- check use of Adobe connect & prepare-students interview in groups but not in the same location.
- Need procedures, standards, & good communication
- Checklists, checklists, checklists

Clients

Technology!

- Some clients need reassurance and support to use Clio.
- Online collaboration poses challenges for students and clients.
- Cases mainly generated via search engines- but often cases more complex.
- Search engines generate strange cases!!
